It is fair to say that God is dead. He has been killed by the West writ large. However, that is not the end of the story, much like Good Friday is not the end of the story. What is the end of the story is that atheism is no longer cool. It used to be avant-garde and super edgy to triggered the evolution-denying Christians. This was true maybe a decade ago, but the coolness has worn out its welcome. The edgy thing to do now is to be a trad. This is not to so that trads are cool; most of them are just incels larping as trads. Atheism is dead and this will mean in an age of mass psychosis, insecurity and instability that God will be reborn.
